

The Indiana telephone privacy law works wonderfully for consumer protection. I have been very satisfied with the strong provisions of this law and I do not want it weakened in favor of business interests. Please do not override the Indiana law.